Customers' Corner

Every housewife who wants to get the most good food for her money should ask herself these questions about her food store:

Are prices low on all items every day in the week?

Is the price plainly marked on each item?

Is the quality high? The answer should always be "yes" at A&P. If it isn't, we want to know about it.

Father Sullivan Assigned Chaplain of State Prison

Father Edward J. Sullivan, assistant pastor of the Nativity Catholic Church, will assume his duties tomorrow as Chaplain of the California State Prison on Terminal Island, according to Father Patrick J. McGuiness, pastor of the local church.

Father Sullivan, who came to the local parish from the Los Angeles General Hospital, has served the church here for the past two years.

During the war Father Sullivan served in the San Pedro area. This week the new state prison Chaplain received indoctrination in his duties at the harbor institution. In the war years the prison was maintained by the U. S. Navy. It was only recently reactivated by the state.

Rites Conducted For George West, Former Eagle

Funeral services for George Edward West, 73, of 1514 West 218th street, who died Saturday were held at 2 p.m. last Wednesday, July 22, at the Stone and Myers chapel. Officiating at the service was Rev. U. S. Schauer of the Central Evangelical Church of Torrance.

A native of Montana, West was a retired carpenter and a member of the Eagles prior to his death.

Surviving are his widow, Maude E. West, of 1514 West 218th street; a son, Edward, of San Pedro, and two daughters, Mrs. Ivey L. Ritchie, of 1645 West 219th street, and Eva J. West, of 1514 West 218th street. Also surviving are two sisters and five brothers.

Speaker To Tell Of New McLain Pension Plan

A new McLain Pension Plan will be explained in full by a speaker from the California Institute of Social Welfare at a meeting to be held Tuesday, August 1 at 3:30 p.m. in the C.I.O. Hall, 1316 Border avenue.

According to George McLain, chairman of the state-wide California Institute, the State Legislative Council's Office is preparing the new pension measure which, after being titled by the attorney general's office, will be printed.

"The Petitions," said McLain, "will be ready for circulation by our membership sometime this month."

The pension meeting will be free and open to the public.

Furniture Store Now Owned by Dominguezes

A change in the ownership status of Frank's Furniture Store was announced this week by the parties involved.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hanni, formerly associated with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dominguez in the operation of the store, revealed this week that they had sold their interest to the latter couple, who are now the sole owners of the store, located at 1354 El Prado.

Open House Plans Made

Plans were discussed at this week's Recreation Department staff meeting concerning an open house program to be held on Thursday evening, August 31, at the Civic Auditorium, which will wind up the summer recreation program.

Craft displays from the city's seven playgrounds will be displayed and both semi-professional and amateur talent will be presented.

The Torrance Area Youth Band will provide a musical background.

Next TEAC Meeting Set For August 14

Next scheduled meeting of the TEAC (Torrance Educational Advisory Committee) will be held in the First Christian Church Monday, Aug. 14, Mrs. Grace Wright, moderator, announced this week.

Walter Rehboldt, now directing Torrance's summer schools, is preparing a program of discussion on report cards, she said.

Coast Guardsmen Visit Relatives in Torrance

Donald Stevenson and Pat Conner, both members of the Coast Guard, were visiting friends and relatives in Torrance during the past week before embarking for assignments in the Pacific.

Conner will visit his father in Sacramento before leaving, friends said. He recently completed training at an East Coast training center.

Mother of City Worker Passes

Maggie Bell Slonecker, 80, died at the home of her son, Paul Slonecker, 24430 Neece avenue Superintendent of the Torrance City garage July 22. An ardent worker through the years for the American Red Cross and other philanthropic organizations she had resided in Wateria for 12 years.

She was born in Chillicothe, Missouri, and was a member of the Christian Church. Services were held the Gamby Chapel, in Lomita, 2 p.m. Tuesday, July 25 with Rev. G. Russell Barber, pastor of the Christian Church of Montebello officiating.

Interment was in Roosevelt Memorial Park. She is survived by three sons, Paul of Wateria; Frank Slonecker, Trenton, Missouri and Clair Slonecker of

VALUE OF LIBERTY

The only liberty that is valuable, is a liberty connected with order; that not only exists with order and virtue, but which cannot exist at all without them. —Burke
